New York Dental Meeting 2005: Nov. 25-30

The Greater New York Dental Meeting invites you to attend its 81st annual session in New York City. There is no registration fee if you purchase one full-day or two half-day seminar or workshop tickets and pre-register.

Last year, the Greater New York Dental Meeting attracted nearly 42,000 attendees, including more than 10,000 dentists – making it the largest dental congress in the United States. People traveled to New York City from 77 international countries, as well as 49 States and its territories.

In 2005, The Greater New York Dental Meeting will present its largest continuing education program with world-renowned clinicians offering the most current information.

Presentations will be made on all of the important topics in dentistry, ranging from research to practical utilization in clinical settings. These courses will be presented in several different formats, including seminars, hands-on workshops, live interactive broadcasts and table demonstrations.

The exhibit floor will be open for four days, from November 27 to November 30. Hundreds of dental manufacturers and dealers in over 1,500 booths will showcase the newest products and services that the dental industry has to offer. The Greater New York Dental Meeting continues to be regarded as one of the most influential dental exhibitions in the United States.

Representatives of the United States Department of Commerce, along with multi-lingual personnel, will be present to assist and encourage interaction among our exhibitors and international guests.

New York City offers something for everyone during this spectacular holiday season. Cultural, sporting and social events will be available, as well as the opportunity to visit this shopping paradise. Bring the entire family!

Multi-language brochures which include registration and hotel information are available upon request.
